Exhibitors

1. Each contestant must be a current 4-H or FFA member enrolled in a 4-H club or FFA chapter. Exhibitors must have turned nine years of age by September 30, 2024. Participation terminates on December 31 of the year of their nineteenth birthday.
2. Exhibitors may show off trailer or stall in barn. All areas must be cleaned at conclusion of show.
3. All exhibitors must wear their exhibitor's number, clearly visible, while in the show ring. Number cards will be provided.
4. Each county is asked to designate an adult county contact for each in the sheep and beef area. This coordinator will work with the appropriate barn manager to be responsible for exhibitors, stall assignments, stall deposits, overnight supervision, and cleanup.
5. All exhibitors must participate in one sheep showmanship class or one beef showmanship class. You may participate in both.
6. A beef exhibitor meeting will be held at 8:45 Saturday morning in show pavilion. A sheep exhibitor meeting will be held at 10:00 Saturday morning in the sheep show ring.
7. Exhibitors showing both beef and sheep should make every effort to fit and show their own animals realizing that both shows are run concurrently. It is strongly encouraged that contestants only enter what they anticipate they themselves can fit and show. However, if an exhibitor should have both beef and sheep they must indicate on the entry form which species they will be participating in for showmanship.

8. The Glenwood Show is open to exhibitors from: Albemarle, Caroline, Clarke, Culpeper, Essex, Fairfax, Fauquier, Fluvanna, Frederick, Greene, Hanover, King George, Lancaster, Loudoun, Louisa, Madison, Northumberland, Orange, Page, Prince William, Rappahannock, Richmond, Shenandoah, Spotsylvania, Stafford, Warren, and Westmoreland.

Code of Conduct

In order to assure safe and productive 4-H educational programs and activities, the following is adopted as the Glenwood Park Livestock Show's Code of Conduct. Each 4-H/ FFA member is to take a full and active interest in all parts of the planned program. The applicable code will be enforced in a firm, fair, and equitable manner. All 4-H sponsored programs and activities in which minors are involved will be supervised by responsible adult(s). Teens may be placed in a supervisory role under the direct leadership of the responsible adult. ALL ADULTS SHOULD ABIDE BY THE INTENT OF THIS CODE.

This code of conduct serves as a notice of behavior expectations for all program participants. The following types of behavior will not be tolerated:

- DELIBERATE DESTRUCTION OF FACILITIES OR EQUIPMENT.
- POSSESSION OR USE OF FIREWORKS OR FIREARMS.
- POSSESSION OR USE OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES OR ILLEGAL DRUGS.

- ANY SEXUAL OR PORNOGRAPHIC ACTIVITIES.
- CURFEW VIOLATIONS AS SPECIFIED.
- FAILURE TO DRESS AS SPECIFIED BY THE PROGRAM.
- THEFT OF ANY PROPERTY.
- ABUSIVE LANGUAGE.
- FAILURE TO FOLLOW ADDITIONAL REGULATIONS OF ANY SPECIFIC PROGRAM.

Any behavior not specifically covered above but deemed a serious breach of conduct, will be reviewed by the show chairmen.

Disciplinary action will result from any infraction of the above provisions and any one or more of the following actions may be taken depending on the severity of the infraction as determined by the show managers:

- 1) Legal action
- 2) Suspension of 4-H privileges
- 3) Extension Agent/FFA Advisor will be notified
- 4) Restitution
- 5) Apology to those involved
- 6) Reprimand

Entries

1. NEW All beef and sheep entries and fees must be made online at FairEntry <http://glenwoodpark.fairentry.com/> by MARCH 19, 2024 at at 6 pm. Late entries at double the entry fee will be accepted until March 26th at 6 pm. No beef or sheep entries will accepted after March 26th at 6 pm Entry fees are not refundable and must accompany the entry form or they will be considered late. Payment will be made by credit card at time of entry.
2. No adding entries, substituting, or switching of classes will be permitted unless a mistake is made in printing the catalog. Mistakes in printing will be checked with the entry form.
3. All entries must be the property of the 4-H or FFA member making the exhibit. From time of purchase, owner must have personally managed, cared for, and fed any animal he or she enters (except in case of illness and not covering a total period of more than 30 days). Regularly enrolled students not residing at home are not eligible to participate in this show. Entries are accepted in good faith that feeding, management, and care of animals have been conducted as a part of a 4-H or FFA project by the exhibitor.
4. All beef entries should be on the grounds by 8:30 a.m. and all sheep entries should be on the grounds by 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, April 13, 2024. No entries allowed on the grounds before 12:00 noon on Friday, April 12, 2024. All exhibitors are in charge of livestock and shall care for, guard, protect, and preserve the same. The Loudoun Fair and Associates, Inc. and the Glenwood Park Livestock Show will not be responsible for any loss or damage.
5. If the animal gets away from the exhibitor three times it will be dismissed from the class. Animals shall be under the control of exhibitors at all times without the aid of tranquilizers or other drugs. If it is determined that any animal poses a threat, the Show Committee reserves the right to disqualify the animal and remove it from the show areas. The safety of all exhibitors and animals is the primary concern.
6. All animals exhibited must be in good physical health. Any animal found with a disease that could be passed on to other animals will have to be removed immediately from the grounds. Beef and sheep show chairmen will check health of animals. A veterinarian will make the final decision if necessary.
7. Any animal shown in purebred breeding classes must have registration papers present on the day of the show. Papers will be checked prior to showing. A screening committee will verify the suitability of entries in any class.
8. All written complaints or suggestions should be directed to the appropriate committee chair by close of show. If the complaint cannot be resolved, a fifty-dollar deposit will be required for grievance committee review. The Grievance Committee shall consist of the Glenwood chair, Glenwood co-chair and committee chair. All valid complaints will receive their fifty-dollar deposit returned in full. Any complaints deemed invalid shall forfeit the fifty-dollar deposit.
9. Beef/Sheep Committee Chairmen have the right to add, delete, or combine classes. Committee Chairmen also reserve the right to verify the suitability of entries in any class.

Grounds

1. Vehicle operators will observe designated parking areas and follow instructions of the Ground Committee. Failure to do so may result in expulsion from grounds.
2. Only exhibitors, parents and/or legal guardians of exhibitors and volunteer leaders may stay overnight on the show grounds at their own risk. Others must leave no later than 10:30 p.m. Any exceptions must be approved by the Show Chairmen.
3. Any exhibitor staying overnight must be accompanied by a parent, legal guardian, or club leader.
4. All animals will be stalled in assigned barns. Stall assignments will be done by show management. No tack shall be set up prior to Thursday, April 11, 2024.
5. A food stand selling items for both breakfast and lunch will be available on the grounds on Saturday until 2 p.m. or until the food is gone.
6. Exhibitors should bring only the minimum bedding needed. All bedding must be cleaned up after the show, including bedding at the tie out area, and taken to a designated disposal area. Persons not completing to satisfaction of the barn chair will forfeit exhibitor/stall deposits and the right to exhibit at the 2025 Glenwood Show. Deposits will be returned upon check-out.
7. The Loudoun Fair and Associates and Glenwood Park Livestock Show will not be responsible for damage to or loss of personal property.
8. No dogs allowed on the grounds.

Classes

1. The order of showing and judging will be: beef showmanship at 9:30 a.m. staggered start time, and sheep showmanship at 10:30 a.m., or at the discretion of the show committee. In the case of rain, beef showmanship order will be seniors, intermediates, juniors, and novices. Beef confirmation classes will begin 30 minutes after conclusion of all beef showmanship classes.
2. Premium money, ribbons, and awards will be given the day of the show.
3. When classes are divided, money and ribbons will be awarded and the winners are eligible to come back in the championship class. It will be the decision of the beef/sheep committee chairmen as to when classes are to be broken.
4. If only one animal is in a class, first place ribbons and second place money will be awarded.

BEEF SHOW RULES

1. Read General Show Regulations.
2. All heifer and steer entries must be carried as an official 4-H and FFA project certified by Extension Agent or FFA Advisor. All steers must be owned and in possession of the exhibitor in accordance with the rules of the exhibitor's home county. Heifers see ownership dates under heifer section.
3. An entry fee of $15 per entry/head must accompany the entry form. An additional entry fee of $5 will be collected on each bred and owned entry. Entries must be made online at FairEntry by March 19th at 6 pm. Late entries will be accepted until March 26th at 6 pm with a non-refundable entry fee of $30 per head with an additional $10 fee for Bred and Owned entry. No entry will be accepted after March 26 at 6 pm
4. A $10 per exhibitor deposit will be required, paid at check-in, prior to stall assignments. Deposits will be returned after barn and tie out areas are cleaned-up at the conclusion of the show. Please do not pay with entry. If you do not clean up your stall area, you will not be allowed to show in the 2025 Glenwood Show.
5. All beef animals must be fitted in or around the barns or designated areas to be determined at check-in by the show committee. Fitting to be completed by the 4-H/FFA members is encouraged.
6. All beef entries must be on time for their respective class. Once the entries in the exhibitor's respective class gate has closed, the exhibitor is too late and ineligible to compete.
7. No animal may be brought to the show unless entered, and it must be shown in the appropriate class.

Beef Showmanship

1. Every beef exhibitor must show in either a beef or a sheep showmanship class. Anyone not participating will not be permitted to show in the conformation classes.
2. Animals must be shown clean and dry. Exhibitors will be judged solely on showmanship.
3. Beef Showmanship classes are Junior Novice, Senior Novice, Junior, Intermediate and Senior. All classes are as of 9/30/24:

Junior Novice:	9-13 years of age and have never shown before in a 4-H or FFA show
Senior Novice:	14-19 years of age and have never shown before in a 4-H or FFA show
